

NEWS of PH Publishers

For you even more up-to-date and fresher!

We are glad to present our new artistic director Battista Pradal.

Many of his works are internationally renowned and often awarded in competitions. Some of his pieces were chosen for compulsory work in international competitions. We are happy to have him in our team.

Our publishing house has updated and modernized its presence on www.

This is the occasion to introduce you to a new selection of literature. In collaboration with some artists, you will find recommendations for new pieces from other internationally experienced choral conductors, effective but not too demanding to sing. (The various levels of difficulty are categorized "1" - very simple " up to " 5 "- very demanding" and help as an instructions for easier selection.)

We invite you to take a look inside these pieces «Selected by ...". Do you know pieces that have not been published yet? Be kindly welcome to submit your proposals for this selection and become a part of "Selected by ...»

Have fun browsing and we look forward to your support.
