

News: Launch of ChorusCommunity, platform for today's choristers

You are a chorus singer, or choir conductor, you start a new repertoire and want to prepare it. ChorusCommunity is for you.

ChorusCommunity is a platform where you can:

- ask for a professional to record for you the piece and receive it within a few days
- download the recordings of the available pieces and practice them with ChorusPlay

Three advantages of ChorusCommunity :

- The recordings are those of real voices, with the texts, by professionals, on reference versions
- You have direct access to the desired bars, slow down the tempo, annotate, ...
- Your pieces are always available on your mobile / tablet (and your PC after an easy process)

During the launch period, 50% reduction on the subscription (6 €uros for 12 months instead of 12 €uros), and the first piece you ask for recording is offered. Go to ChorusCommunity, create your account and ask for the first piece to be recorded! <http://community.choruspoint.com/>

Choirs conductors: By sharing with ChorusCommunity your own quality recordings, you will receive free subscriptions in exchange. Contact us: guydelaservette@choruspoint.com

News: Search for singers, very good readers

As part of the launch of the ChorusCommunity platform, ChorusPoint search singers, male, very good sight readers, interested for recording, on demand, at home.

Remuneration and volume of work to be agreed.

Contact Guy de La SERVETTE guydelaservette@choruspoint.com