

BRIEF BIOGRAPHY
FOR
THE REV. TODD JOLLY

PRESBYTERY ASSOCIATE
PRESBYTERY OF SAN FRANCISCO

Todd's career as a pastor, a musician, and an educator has taken him to New Jersey, Kansas, New Mexico, and Indiana, as well as the San Francisco Bay Area. He is a published composer/arranger, director, percussionist, administrator, teacher, and preacher with extensive experience designing liturgy in various styles and representing a range of cultures.

He earned a Bachelor's degree in Music Education at Trenton State College, followed by graduate studies in Instrumental Conducting. He holds a Master of Divinity from San Francisco Theological Seminary. Additional training in community organizing with Industrial Areas Foundation and in composition and song leading as a Fellow of Melodious Accord have both strongly influenced his work.

Todd is a member of American Choral Directors Association and Early Music America.
